Mr. John Malone
Assistant Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
201 East 69th Street
New York, New York

Dear John:

Thank you very much for the magnificent day which I enjoyed at Camp Smith last week. I had such a grand time and it was certainly good to see you and the other members of your fine staff.

I know that our country can look with confidence to the future when I see the high type of person that serves in your organization, as well as from the many local law enforcement agencies. Despite the many problems in this country, we have nothing to ultimately fear so long as we have people such as yourself in positions of responsibility.

I look forward to seeing you in the very near future.

Warmest personal regards.

Sincerely,

EVC/pb

Deputy Banking Official Appointed

The appointment of E. Virgil Conway, a Manhattan lawyer and a Republican, to be First Deputy Superintendent of Banks, was announced over the weekend by the superintendent, Frank Wille. Mr. Conway, 35 years old, will assume his new duties as second in command of the State Banking Department on Aug. 17. His salary will be $22,500 a year.

A graduate of Colgate University, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, and of Yale University Law School, Mr. Conway is with Debevoise, Plimpton, Lyons & Gates, a law firm at 320 Park Avenue that specializes in corporate and tax matters.

As is customary, Mr. Wille consulted with Governor Rockefeller's office in selecting Mr. Conway. Mr. Wille used to be on the Governor's staff. The post of first deputy superintendent has been vacant since the resignation of Boris S. Berkovitch April 1.

Dear Virgil:

As you may know, I have submitted my request for retirement from the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Mr. Kelley has accepted my request, effective March 28, 1975, and has designated Assistant Director J. Wallace LaPrade to take charge of our office here in New York. Upon Mr. LaPrade's arrival, we will be in touch with you to arrange for an opportunity for him to meet you.

I do not want to leave without letting you know how much I have enjoyed our association through the years and how much I have appreciated the cooperation you have always extended to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Although I will be residing in Pennsylvania, I will be in New York from time to time and hope that we will have occasion to meet again in the future.

With kind personal regards,

Sincerely,
